STEPPEING UP THE FIGHT TO IMPROVE MALARIA PROGRAMS

Webinar 01/20 English session:
What you need to know about the Global fund application process for the new cycle 2020 – 2022
AN ORIENTATION FOR CIVIL SOCIETY ORGANIZATIONS
Friday, January 17th 2020
10:00am to 11:30am WAT/Cameroon/Nigeria time

What: join this webinar to learn about the new Global fund allocation cycle 2020-2022 particularly the application process for malaria programs. This webinar will cover what Civil society organizations need to know and how to participate in this process.

How to join: To register, click here

When: Friday, January 17th 2020
9:00am - 10:30am Mali/Senegal West Africa time (GMT)
10:00am - 11:30am Cameroon/Central Africa time WAT/(GMT+1)
12:00pm - 1:30pm Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania WAT/(GMT+2)
3:30pm - 5:00pm India (GMT+5:30)
5:00pm - 6:30pm Thailand (GMT+7)

Guest presenters
• The Global fund secretariat
• Maurine Murenga, Board member Global fund, Communities Delegations & Executive Director Lean on me
• RD Marte, APCASO Executive Director
• Olivia Ngou, Impact Santé Afrique (ISA) Executive Director & CS4ME Global Coordinator

About Impact Santé Afrique (ISA)
ISA is an African non-governmental organization, led and coordinated by young women, ISA is specialized in advocacy and strategic communication to increase access to quality health services for communities. ISA focuses on malaria programs and coordinates the global platform for civil society organizations for malaria elimination (CS4ME) www.cs4me.org.

For more information, please contact:
Zeinabou Idé, program officer | Impact Santé Afrique (ISA)
Zeinabou.ide@impactsante.org